THERESA BONAPARTIS

Author, Co-Developer, and Speaker on Post-Abortion Healing

Theresa Bonapartis is the Director of Good Counsels Lumina Post Abortion Healing program. Theresa is the co-developer with The Sisters of Life of “Entering Canaan – a Sacramental Journey to an Inheritance of Mercy”, a post-abortion ministry published by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, which consists of day and weekend retreats, monthly gatherings, and special retreats. She also developed, with the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal, specialized days for men, siblings of aborted babies, and those who aborted due to an adverse diagnosis.

Having experienced abortion herself, her journey has inspired many works across the globe, including “An Afternoon of Prayerful Remembrance and Intercession”, a prayer service she developed with the Family Life Office of NY, which has been televised by EWTN and conducted by many dioceses across the country. She has written articles for Mind & Spirit, Aleteia, Catholic Online, Catholic Exchange, The Federalist, and National Catholic Register. Theresa also authored a book of meditations, “A Journey to Healing Through Divine Mercy”, to assist in healing those suffering from abortion.

In 2002, Theresa received the 2nd Annual John Cardinal O’Connor Award for her work with those who are post-abortive. She currently serves on the Advisory Board of Be Not Afraid, a ministry for those who have received an adverse pregnancy diagnosis. Her great devotion to Divine Mercy, which was instrumental in her own healing journey, and Our Lady of Czestochowa, patroness of all her work, is the inspiration for all she does. She currently blogs at www.reclaimingourchildren.typepad.com
